

BALLABROOIE,
HIGH GROUND,
BANGALORE.

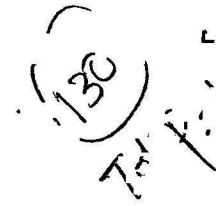

Confidential (123) 1-2 29th May 1918.

Your Highness,

I am deeply grateful to your Highness for being so communicative, frank & gracious at the interview today.

As regards Mr Krishnalingam's case, I know your Highness is strongly opposed to his continued employment - But the Department is also supervising great difficulties on account of large work and increasing responsibilities and the position has been causing me some anxiety.

Mr Krishnalingam has, I understand,

LAKE VIEW.
YELWAL ROAD.
MYSORE

20th June 1918.

May I please Your Highness,

I beg to convey my loyal & respectful congratulations to your Highness on this your Highness's Birthday.

It will be my constant prayer that your Highness may be blessed with long life and continued health & happiness.

I ever am,

Your Highness's devoted & humble servant,

Ch. Vijaya Varaya-

already informed Mr Campbell that he does not wish to continue - I am not influenced by any personal considerations to favour him.

Having said this much, I have no wish to press the matter if Your Highness is not inclined to favour my view.
In that case, I beg Your Highness will be pleased to instruct Mr Thacker chiefly to inform me - "His Highness is not in favour of the proposal you make at the interview" or words to that effect. I shall understand.

Yours Highness's devoted & humble servant,
M. V. Anonay
